Capturing Changes in Sudanese Teachers’ Practices using Reflective Photography

Alison Buckler, Open University, UK

The Teacher Education in Sub-Saharan Africa (TESSA) Programme
73 OUS study centres
100,000 teachers

OUS, Khartoum

SUDAN

OUS B.ED In-Service Teacher

Government Text Book

Year One

Government Text Book

Year Two

Government Text Book

Year Three

TESSA Handbook
Shared Cultures...

OU, UK

Teaching experience, experience of Sub-Saharan African classrooms

Academic culture
English language

OUPS

Sudanese culture
Arabic language

Sudanese teachers
Different Frames...

- Privilege large-scale data
- Investigating effectiveness of handbook
- Strong academic hierarchy
- Strict gender norms
- Islamic values
- Funding recipients
- OU, UK
- Funding donors
- Predominantly female research team
- Secular perspective
- Exploring teacher change
- Secure funding
- Privilege teacher voice
“Those who will be most severely punished by Allah on the Day of Resurrection will be the image makers”

“Every image maker will be in the fire and for every image that he made a soul will be created for him which will be punished in the fire”
Thank you.